A Service Guide for Invisible/Hidden Disabilities

Robert L. Heim, Jr., President

Kirk A. Woodson, M.D., M. S., Vice President

Len Elizabeth Mitchell, R.N., Secretary

The Philadelphia, PA., Internet Support, presents this informational this booklet as a guide for concerned individuals with the necessary resources and the positive interaction between the patient and our health care providers. This booklet has been compiled to assist us in finding products, services & agencies to lead a productive and proactive life.

The booklet contains web sites and links on a variety of topics. Note: In no way is it to be implied or expressed that the contents of this service guide will take the place of medical advice. "Always consult with your doctor before starting any treatment's."

This booklet will be published yearly. This booklet will cover a wide assortment of disabilities. This will serve as reference point to services within the City, State, Federal Agencies and the Medical Community how to access the information via the internet and to use these services to assist their patients in finding the resources that improve the quality of our life during this journey.

In the event that anyone has any valued information or links of interest, please feel free to contribute the information so that it may assist those in need, or have limited resources/access to a home computer.

In closing, it is our sincere hope that the enclosed information will be a valued resource to you and those who are affected by Invisible/hidden disabilities.
